

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1894.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1907

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

And still it rains.

Miss Sadie McClelland is very ill at her home.

Miss Nellie McGraw of Limestone street is ill with grip.

Mrs. W. C. Sly is on the sick list at her home in Houston avenue.

The Postoffice of Clabill, Greenup county, will be discontinued February 1st.

Abe Bulger, colored, of Mayslick, died Sunday night at the home of friends on Hord's Hill.

Miss Lucy Baldwin, who has been sick with the grip for the past week at her home in East Second street, is convalescent.

The show at The Washington Saturday night was one of the best of the season and a larger audience should have greeted it.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune has inaugurated a contest for a trip to the Jamestown Exposition, and Mrs. Lillie Halbert Parker has been nominated from Vanceburg, having now 2,729 votes.

The funeral of the late G. W. Ross took place from the St. Charles Hotel yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock with services by Rev. W. W. Hall of the Christian Church and Rev. Lee of the Second M. E. Church, South.

A large number of people who meet nowadays complain of having the grip. A physician, in speaking of the numerous cases in the city, said the peculiar weather conditions undoubtedly had much to do with the prevalence of the disease.

Miss Anna Mulliken, aged 21, employed in the Drew Shoe factory at Portsmouth, was run down by a B. and O. yard engine a few days ago and instantly killed, the body being horribly mangled. Miss Mulliken lived at Vanceburg, where the remains were sent for interment.

The Official Board of the Third Street Methodist Episcopal Church met last evening and adjourned until next Monday evening out of respect to the death of Mr. A. B. Cole, who since his residence in Maysville, has been a royal and faithful member of this Church and its Official Board. Resolutions of sympathy and condolence were passed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hanna, and their three interesting children are visiting at "Point of View," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Andersen. Mr. Hanna and family have been residents of Louisiana for a number of years where he has been extensively engaged in the lumber business. They will remain for the winter at Dover with his sisters.

Rentfrow's Jolly Pathfinders played from "Sire to Son" at the Washington Theater last night to a crowded house. The company is a very strong one and evenly balanced; the special scenery was elaborate and plentiful, and the specialties were fine. Altogether the show is the best that has appeared here this season of its character. They will play here all the week, and you will make no mistake by seeing them. Tonight the bill will be "Lucretia Borgia."

The revival at the Christian Church began last night with a splendid audience in spite of the inclement weather. The singing led by a chorus choir was inspiring and the sermon by Rev. Hugh McClelland was scholarly, earnest and eloquent, and held the close attention of the audience from beginning to end. Mr. McClelland is a native of Australia, and a Scotchman. He is a clear, forceful and eloquent speaker, and will certainly have a large hearing in the series of meetings he is conducting here. The service begins promptly at 7 o'clock each night.

Secretary S. R. Hankins in his administration of the affairs of the local Y. M. C. A. has been painstaking, efficient and economical in all things, and for the first in many years has ended the years work without a deficit. He will leave for his new field of labor, Hillaboro, Texas, in a few weeks, where he will take charge of an Association numbering four hundred members and at a largely increased salary. Mrs. Hankins will be greatly missed in social circles, especially in her Church work, to which she was devoted and zealous. In their departure they will carry with them the love and best wishes of a wide circle of true friends.

The river is climbing the bank at a rapid rate, the gage this morning marking 43.3 feet and rising.

Considering the general and continued hard rains the Ohio has acted very consistently in retaining itself within its banks.

Nevertheless the overflow in the lowlands has resulted in considerable damage.

Here at this point it may reach a fifty foot stage which would probably inundate a few buildings in Wall street.

The ferryboat Laurence earns its money in carrying passengers across the big water now adays, for a certainty.

The ice piers have disappeared from view, the big river has swallowed them.

JUST ARRIVED. THEY ARE FINE.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church will have a spelling contest Friday night.

Mr. F. W. Hawes of the East End left this morning on a two weeks business jaunt. During his absence he will visit his brother at Fort Worth, Texas, and thence extend his trip into Indian Territory.

The North German Fire Insurance Company, according to a decision rendered by a Hamburg court in a test case must pay the losses which it incurred as a result of the San Francisco earthquake of last year.

Dr. Leslie Brand and Mr. W. C. Chisholm left this morning for Manchester where they go to examine a number of applicants for the Fraternal Order of Eagles, who will form an Aerie in this city very shortly.

The Evening Post prints a story that John D. Rockefeller has agreed to give $2,000,000 for the endowment of a University for Louisville, providing a similar amount will be raised by those interested in the new institution.

Yesterday the stockholders of the Bank of Maysville elected the following officers—

President—J. F. Barbour.

Vice-President—A. M. J. Cochran.

Cashier—R. K. Hoeflich.

Directors—J. F. Barbour, A. M. J. Cochran, R. K. Hoeflich, John Barbour and Robert A. Cochran.

MISS ELIZABETH BRYANT JOHNSTON.

Miss Elizabeth Bryant Johnston, a native of Mason county, died Sunday at her residence in Washington City after an illness of less than a week.

Miss Johnston had long been identified prominently with Washington literary and charitable work.

The deceased was born in Minerva and was the daughter of Dr. Johnston and a sister of Samuel Johnston, who married a daughter of General Hamer of Georgetown, O.

Miss Johnston is very well remembered by our older citizens.

A. B. COLE.

We had scarcely gone to press with favorable news from Judge A. B. Cole, a twin brother of the late Judge A. E. Cole, on yesterday morning, before a turn came for the worse and at 10:45 his spirit peacefully passed away at his home corner Fourth and Limestone.

The deceased was born at West Union, O., March 16th, 1839. His father moved to Lewis county, about eight years thereafter, and consequently he spent most of his young life in this state.

In 1862 he entered the law office of Judge R. H. Stanton in this city, under whom he studied law for two years and was admitted to the Bar in 1865. The next year he married Miss Josephine Peters of Ironton, O., to which place he then moved and there practiced law until 1876, when he moved to Chillicothe, O. While there he was twice elected Mayor of the city, and was appointed by Governor McKimley the Democratic member of the Board of Pardons for the Ohio Penitentiary.

In 1902 he returned to Ironton, O., where he remained until July 1905, when he was induced by his nephew, Hon. A. D. Cole, to move to this city and share his extensive and growing business, and thenceforth he continued the practice of law under the firm name of A. B. & A. D. Cole.

The short time he was among us he made many friends and was universally beloved.

In early life he united with the M. E. Church, and at the time of his death was one of the Stewards of that Church in this city. He was also an Oddfellow and a Knight Templar.

Generous, noble, exemplar, he was a true man and an ideal citizen. May he rest in peace.

The remains will be taken on the 1:30 p. m. train to Ironton, where the funeral and burial will occur Wednesday morning.

The Postoffice at Carr's, Lewis county, is to be discontinued today.

Rain Coats, Jackets dry cleaned at No. 6, East Second street.

James M. Troutman and Mrs. Addie Tapp married Saturday at Carlisle.

Frenzied with jealousy at the sight of the man who was his wife's former sweetheart, William Hickey of Manchester shot through the heart and instantly killed Bud Cooper, a molder, in the restaurant of Brannigan & Pinner, at Eighth and Vine streets, Cincinnati, at 11:45 o'clock Saturday night. Hickey was immediately arrested and was taken to the First District Police Station, where a charge of murder was placed against him. He was married at Manchester four months ago to Nell Hill. He went to that place from Brooksville in 1900, and was engaged in the saloon business there.

PIANO TUNING.

Leave orders for tuning with John L. Winter Maysville, Ky. J. R. HANNA.

John Hite Mason, ex-Mayor of Oatlettburg, is dead, aged 62.

TONIGHT.

The Rentfrow's "Jolly Pathfinders," numbering 25 people, arrived in town Sunday and last night open a week's engagement at the Washington Theater. One of the best acts in vaudeville will appear in conjunction with the company tonight. "The Mysterious Mora," novelty entertainer, an entertainment of magic, juggling, shadowgraphy and lightning crayon work. It is said to be one of the very best novelty acts on the stage today. Master Harry King, the boy comedian; King and Rentfrow, The Torbitts and Mr. Fred Danon will also appear in high class vaudeville. Mr. Elmer Buffham and Miss Clara Mathes, two of the very best actors in the profession, will appear in the leading roles. The Metropolitan band of the Rentfrow company gave a concert at noon, which was highly appreciated by a large audience. Remember, ladies admitted free tonight if tickets are purchased before 6 p. m.

What Better Evidence is Needed Than That We Are Selling Dozens of SUITS and OVERCOATS Daily at $8.50 and $12.50

That are matchless values. Most of them sold to people that know what's what. Were the general public posted on quality there would not be a suit left in our house in 10 days. Take a glance at our Clothing Window and note qualities and prices marked in plain figures. Many of the Suits we positively could not replace at one-third more than we are selling them for, but you all know our mode of doing business. Always clean up at the end of the season to make room for next season's goods.
